

IRONWOOD FESTIVAL 2010

Saturday, May 15 • 8 AM–1 PM

Tucson Audubon's Mason Center
SW corner, Thornydale and Hardy Rd • 520-971-6238

FREE!

8:30–11:30 AM

Presentations

8:30 AM

Birds of the Ironwood Forest

Paul Green, Tucson Audubon Society

Native Trees and Carbon Sequestration

Jane Poynter, The Local Trust

9:30 AM

Ironwood Forest National Monument

Lahsha Brown, Friends of Ironwood Forest

Native Plants and Their Pollinators

Cynthia Reiners, Arizona Native Plant Society

10:30 AM

Flora of the Ironwood Forest National Monument

John Wiens, Arizona-Sonora Desert Museum

Arizona: Herp Heaven

Ed Moll, Tucson Herpetological Society.

LIVE HERPS!

GREAT FOR KIDS

8:30–11:30 AM

Trail walks led by Desert Harvesters

Edibles in the Ironwood Forest

8 AM–12 NOON

Kids' Activity Booths

Tucson Audubon Society—Bird ID and migration games

Friends of Ironwood Forest

Bureau of Land Management: Ironwood Forest National Monument

Arizona Native Plant Society—Make native bee houses

Tucson Herpetological Society—Live snakes

HUGE VARIETY OF BOOKS

8 AM–1 PM

Natural History Used Book Sale

Field guides, plant guides, essays, and more!

12–1 PM

Lunch with A Ray of Hope Band

Bring a lunch or buy a hot dog and enjoy the music!

